

Legacy Investment – Releasing Building Our Legacy - Discover the Private Capital Market (Part 1)

Date: June 20th, 2024

Legacy Investment Mutual Fund Trust proudly presents 'Building Our Legacy - Discover the Private Capital Market (Part 1),' featuring Art Smith, VP of Corporate Development at Legacy Investment, and Peter Jarman, Chief Operating Officer at Axxess Capital Advisors and a member of the Board of Trustees at Legacy Investment.

Join us for an insightful exploration of Canada's private capital markets. This video delves into the significant role private capital markets play alongside public markets like TSX and S&P 500, highlighting how they raise a substantial amount of capital. We discuss the higher fundraising activity in private markets, with Alberta raising equal amounts in both sectors and Ontario leading nationally.

In this discussion, Art and Peter reveal that private capital markets are nearly eight times larger than the TSX nationally, offering cost-efficient capital access for midsize companies and direct investor engagement. Viewers will learn about the stability and high returns of private investments tailored to areas like real estate, oil and gas, and technology, with regulation ensuring investor protection.
